TOURISTIC INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES

MONTPELLIER HISTORIC CENTRE

A town that continues to bear the marks of time and proudly displays the symbols of eras past. Strolling through the historic centre is to embark on a voyage across a thousand years of history, from the founding of the town in 985 to the present day and beyond. Place de la Comédie, Place de la Canourgue, the Polygone Shopping Centre... there's so much to see in this forward-looking town in the south of France.

Distance from the hotel : 10 min.

SAINT-GUILHEM LE DÉSERT

One of France's most beautiful villages and a spiritual stopover on the road to Compostela, medieval Saint-Guilhem-le-Désert is a veritable haven of peace. From Place de la Liberté and its impressive 150 year old plane tree, the village streets wind their way through charming houses with Renaissance mullioned windows, gemmed bays and Gothic lintels.

Distance : 45 min.

ODYSSEUM QUARTER

At the edge of town is Odysseum, a unique open-air leisure and shopping concept with at its centre a twentieth-century square (known as Place des Grands Hommes) and the Hélios Theatre with its statues. You will also find restaurants, boutiques and department stores, as well as leisure pursuits such as cinema, bowling, aquarium, skating, climbing, and more.

Distance : 3 min.

THE BEACHES

Montpellier dispose d'un littoral de charme entièrement préservé avec des plages naturelles, des étangs à la faune et à la flore protégées, du passage de canal «du Rhône à Sète» et d'insolites cabanes de pêcheurs qui dessinent un littoral riche et varié.

Distance : 10 min.

LANGUEDOC WINE COUNTRY

The Hérault, wine country par excellence, has some of the oldest vineyards in France. Indeed, more than just agriculture, here the wine industry is a civilization. Whether from country slopes or coastal climes, the quality of the wine is uncontested and adorns dinner tables worldwide. Visit wine cellars and storehouses and meet the men and women who make the wine and enjoy sharing their passion for the vine. Taste the pleasure that is to be found in wine country.

Distance : 20 min.

AIGUES-MORTES, MEDIEVA-CITY

To come to Aigues-Mortes, it's to enter the History ... 2000 years of History await you in the royal city built according to the will of Saint Louis. For an unforgettable stay in the Camargue, 5 minutes from the Mediterranean beaches!Distance : 30 min.
